PROGRAMME.

A MESSAGE FROM THE MANAGER.

Thank you all for coming along to this Cup Final today, the first for the 1st XI for a long time. In fact I played in the last one against Lensbury a few years ago (we lost on penalties). For me it's been a great season and the response to training has been fantastic, with some great results coming in each week.

There are many people who deserve thanks for their efforts this season - all of the players, Committee members, 'Old Boy' Clive, Jim and Kevin, my old pal Mike Field (he was 30 last Wednesday), and Bill and Fran for their combined efforts.

I am really looking forward to today and a good result will mean a great deal to certain individuals, but will mean much more to the Club. Cheer as long and as loud as you like, but don't nag the players - leave that to me!

Thanks to you all

Ray.

PLAYER PROFILES

MICK SIMMONS Mick is having a good season and like the Manager now talks a lot, and it was his goal in the semi-final that put us in the final today. Mick has recently been nicknamed 'The Cat'.Not because of his athletic goalkeeping-but because he piddles in peoples front gardens. It's a good job we are on a coach today-it saves Mick from driving his TR3 $\frac{1}{2}$  (it was a TR7,until last week).But as you can see,he is not too bothered.

DAVE WIGGINS "Casual" to the Boss,Dave is a well balanced player and has had many recommendations for the League side. The rest of us know him as "Wiggie",a name which causes Ian Harrison to turn his head.Dave is a fairly quiet lad but does have his shadier side.....

PAUL RYAN

Affectionately known as "Chels" had a bad start to the season but is now coming through with flying colours and is contention for player of the season. He is no doubt the smallest player in the side and it's amazing that there is enough room for his mouth on his face. Rumours that "Chels" is still a virgin are untrue, 'cos we all know that he lost his virginity when Palace won the cup. Paul has formed his own Company, as he is the size, and as excitable as a six year old.

DAVE MOON

One of the "Old Boys" of the side, who has a lovely wife who helps him a lot. Dave's proposal of marriage was unusual and went something like this:

"Well Darling, how do you fancy becoming a Moonie?"

"Leave it out" she replied "I'm not showing my bum to nobody!"

Dave has recently published a book of his most memorable touchline quotes by Ray Smart, entitled;

GET RID OF IT

SIMON CUDWORTH

Simon has made the switch from an attacker to a defender and is doing very well. Unfortunately, Simon is one of the lads with more forehead than hair, and has given up hope of styling his 'barnet' like the Manager.

It's easy when you have no hair!

KEITH SEAGER

An excellent player who has brought a touch of class to the midfield—we hope he stays next year, but if not we wish him well. Keith played for the 3rd XI earlier this season..... it seems that anyone with a large hooter can get in that team.

QUICK ACTION BIG NOSE CLIPPERS

TONY MURRAY

"Super Stud" is a very poor spoof player, but not a bad footballer, with much talent and always gives 100%. He didn't believe the reports in the National Press about the life of a Super Stud, so he decided to try to become one... He failed until he discovered how to lose that gut.

A stud's life is so dreary!

REMOVE TUBELY BULGE Improves your total figure

The amazing New WAISTSHRINKER plan can remove stomach bulge and at the same time improve your figure. It's a unique new way to improve your shape — tone up tired muscles — and replace ugly bulges with attractive curves. Ideal for men and women. Send today for complete plan.

KEITH LIBURD

Although he has had a lot of injury problems this season, Keith is still a great player, and has a lovely arse and legs. They aren't his only assets though, as he is known as the "Man in the Woods with the Big Chopper". This phrase has caused him some embarrassment so he decided to share what he has got (in more ways than one).

KEITH DAVIDSON

"Davo" is a superb athlete and has represented the League and United Banks. He has scored 27 goals this season and we all hope he will "Go For It" today and give us a couple more. He is very much like Red Rum — not because of the size of his legs but because he runs like he has got four of them and has a long tail in between.

PAUL BIRNIE

A 120% player, who has been a great inspiration this year. Defenders have great difficulty marking him. We suggest that they drink what he drinks, then they will be able to follow "Birnie Bear"

IAN HARRISON

Known as "Baldy" or "Minky" to his mates Ian is having a super season, but we would like to see him score more Saturday afternoons rather than Saturday evenings. His Dad wanted Ian to go into the clothing trade but that fell through when he was told that there wasn't much demand for "Bald Mink" Coats!

ANDY GALLAGHER

Andy has been a great player for Nat. West. and lets hope that he continues that way. He has been plagued by injury this season but is now back to his best, and a good man to have on the touchline, if only he could shoot straight.....

CLIVE RANDELL

Not a player but a terrific "sponge-man". "Old Boy" will also be acting as today's weather man as he knows when it's raining long before we find out. We hope that he wont be required today, but should anyone get injured we all know that Clive has the best hands in the business.

Let us not forget the following who helped to get us to the Final:
Kenny David, Danny Rogers, Norman Wareing, Laurie Bays, Phil Hanley and Neil Prince.

Today's Sponsors were to be the G.L.C. but they pulled out after comments by our Goalkeeper.....
